FROM THE DESK OF Fr. Dave

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"What do you want me to do for you?" Let's imagine that Jesus is asking us the same question. Looking beyond the usual "Santa Claus" list of material things, let us strive to go a bit deeper. True happiness, comfort and consolation for ourselves, loved ones and friends might make the list. We know that Jesus wants to give us gifts that would truly benefit us and make us better, holier people. Sometimes the most unexpected gifts bring us true happiness. Sometimes getting through the most trying times makes an individual or family stronger. When we pray, we often have no idea what to ask. Let us all be guided by Jesus Spirit to ask according to HIS WILL and HIS PLAN. For that we need new vision and perspective in order to see things from His perspective. In reality, should not our response be the same as that of blind Bartimaeus? "Lord that I may see!"

Fr. David J. Kozak

Both Incarnation and Holy Ghost parishes need to update the names of our parishioners who are currently in assisted living facilities and area nursing homes. THIS weekend forms are available in and next to the church bulletins so you can fill it out with the name of your loved one currently in said facilities so we may make sure they are visited on a regular basis. Completed coupons can be dropped in our weekend collection baskets or feel free to call your parish's rectory and provide the needed information.

Election Day, Tuesday November 6th
Prayerfully consider your choice of candidates. Do you want to elect the person who respects God's little ones or one who considers children disposable? Choose Life. God did.
